DIRECTORS' STATEMENT

We invite you all to live in this meditative moment, this one right now, in this space we created as a theatre.

Feel something! However you want to feel is perfect!

The point of all this is connection. Connection with each other, with the terrifying thrilling process of creativity.

You must create too!

Make a pot, bake a cake, make music, write a crazy play, dance, sing, sew...and what else?!?!

At times, theatre seems extra impractical, ridiculous and impermanent.

“Seems, madam? Nay, it is! I know not “seems”...”

The courage and bliss of creating together and sharing this creation in real time is absolutely necessary to being alive.

Thank you for sharing this moment with us.

What a spectacular thing.

Love,
TMP & LD

Program Addendum

A Cup of Tea

A kiss of a play.

:Distraught: (A Disturbance in 4 ½ Movements)

Chemistry and play of the ensemble.

Short Pants

A dilapidated dance hall in the East End of London, around Cheapside in the vicinity of St. Mary-le-Bow Church in the late 70's.

A woman returns to the condemned dance hall to relive a beloved memory of a happier time and comes face to face with her younger self.
